US-Korea Ambassadors Dialogue: Asian Trade/Economic and Security Issues

Ambassador Stephens and Ambassador Han will discuss Asian trade/economic and security issues in the context of a dialogue and Q&A with the audience moderated by UNR economics professor Dr. Thomas F. Cargill

KATHLEEN STEPHENS
Kathleen Stephens served as U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Korea from September 2008 to October 2011, and is a Career Minister in the U.S. Foreign Service. From 2005 to 2007, Ambassador Stephens was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs (EAP), responsible for overall bureau management and public diplomacy and for management of U.S. relations with Japan and Korea. Ms. Stephens also served at the National Security Council as Director for European Affairs and as Principal Officer in Belfast, Northern Ireland during the negotiation of the Good Friday Agreement. She holds a B.A. in East Asian studies from Prescott College and a graduate degree from Harvard University.

HAN DUK-SOO
Ambassador Han Duk-soo was appointed by President Lee Myung-bak as the new Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the United States of America on January 18, 2009. Before appointment, Ambassador Han served as the 38th Prime Minister of the Republic of Korea, Chairman of the Presidential Committee on Facilitating KORUS FTA, Minister of Finance and Economy, and the President of the Korea Institute for Industrial Economics and Trade. During his distinguished career, Ambassador Han has made many contributions to the development and modernization of the Korean economy. Ambassador Han has a B.A. in economics from Seoul National University, and an M.A. and Ph.D. in economics from Harvard University. He has been awarded two Order of Public Service and Merit Medals.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1ST, 11-12:15 PM
JOE CROWLEY STUDENT UNION THEATRE

Limited parking will be available. Contact Dr. Cargill for more information: 775-849-1588 or 784-6812